5 – Make Timely and Balanced Disclosure
5.1 A listed entity should: (a) have a written policy for complying with its continuous disclosure obligations under the Listing Rules; and (b) disclose that policy or a summary of it.	✓ ✓	The Board has adopted a Policy on Continuous Disclosure which is available on the Company's website. The policy raises awareness of the Company's obligations under the continuous disclosure regime; establishes a process to ensure that information about the Company, which may be market sensitive and which may require disclosure, is brought to the attention of the person(s) primarily responsible for ensuring that the Company complies with its continuous disclosure obligations in a timely manner and is kept confidential; and sets out the obligations of Directors, officers, employees and contractors of the Company to ensure that the Company complies with its continuous disclosure obligations.
6 – Respect the Rights of Security Holders
6.1 A listed entity should provide information about itself and its governance to investors via its website.	✓	The Company provides information about itself and its governance to investors via its website (www.troyres.com.au). The Corporate Governance page provides access to all Committee Charters and relevant Corporate Governance Policies. The Company's website also includes copies of its:- <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Annual reports;• Financial statements;• Quarterly reports;• Other ASX announcements;• Notices of Meetings;• Presentations; and• Overviews of the Company's business activities and operations in separately designated areas of the website.
6.2 A listed entity should design and implement an investor relations program to facilitate effective two-way communication with investors.	✓	The Board aims to ensure that shareholders are provided with all of the information necessary to assess the performance of the Company. To achieve this, the Company has a Shareholder Communication Policy which outlines the process through which the Company will endeavour to ensure timely and accurate information is provided equally to all shareholders.
6.3 A listed entity should disclose the policies and processes it has in place to facilitate and encourage participation at meetings of security holders.	✓	The Board seeks to notify all shareholders via a Notice of General Meeting so they can be fully informed of all matters to be put to the shareholder meeting and encourages shareholders to attend and vote at these meetings. The Company's Shareholder Communication Policy can be found on its website.
6.4 A listed entity should give security holders the option to receive communications from, and send communications to, the entity and its security registry electronically.	✓	The Company welcomes electronic communication from its shareholders via its email address (troy@troyres.com.au). In addition, details of ASX announcements and Company reports are distributed to interested parties via email or post as well as being uploaded to the Company's website. The Company's share registry, Computershare, also engages with shareholders electronically and makes available a range of relevant forms on its website. Shareholders can register with Computershare to access their personal information and shareholdings via the internet.

PRINCIPLE	COMPLIED	COMMENT
7.4 A listed entity should disclose whether it has any material exposure to economic, environmental and social sustainability risks and, if it does, how it manages or intends to manage those risks.	✓	The Company has identified that it has exposure to the following primary risks: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Gold Price: The Company is exposed to fluctuations in the gold price which can impact on revenue streams from operations. To mitigate the impact of price fluctuations, the Board has instigated a hedging program. The Company is required to keep a mandatory level of hedging in place under the Company’s debt facility with Investec Bank plc. The Board reviews the level of hedging outside of this mandatory level from time to time. • Environmental: The Company is subject to, and responsible for, ensuring compliance with various regulations, licenses, standards and expectations so that its activities do not cause unauthorised environmental harm. Through its ongoing management of environmental activities at its operating mines, the Company has been able to operate in an environmentally sustainable and responsible manner. At Andorinhas, the Company was involved in reforestation projects that have provided for the ongoing rehabilitation of affected areas. Prior to the Company’s divestment of a controlling interest at Casposo, it worked with local authorities to look at re-vegetation programmes to rehabilitate affected areas. At Karouni the Company has made a concerted effort to operate in conformance with the Equator Principles, IFC Performance Standards, the International Cyanide Management Code, as well as International Environment Standard ISO 14001. • Government Regulations and Imposts: Changes to Government policies, royalties, taxes and other charges can impact on the operations and profitability of the Company. The Company is very conscious of its licence to operation, both in terms of government regulations and social licence. The Company has entered into a Minerals Agreement with the Government of Guyana which provides it with a stable and clear fiscal regime. The Company also maintains good lines of communication with the government and relevant interested parties including the local communities. • Reserve Evaluation and Mine Plan: The Company has a finite economic life based on estimations of the mineral Reserves and the translation of those into an economic Mine Plan. Expert interpretation and then the appropriate application of mining knowledge and skills to the execution of the Mine Plan is critical to the success of the Company’s operations. The Company employs highly competent technical experts and mining practitioners, both directly and via contract, to reduce the risk of the incorrect interpretation of geological information and ensure the application of the latest and most appropriate mining techniques for the Company’s operations.
8 – Remunerate Fairly and Responsibly
8.1 The board of a listed entity should: (a) have a remuneration committee which: (i) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (ii) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose: (iii) the charter of the committee; (iv) the members of the committee; and (v) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or	x	The Board has had a constituted Remuneration and Nomination Committee for the entire year. The Committee has comprised 3 members, being all of the then directors of the Company, namely Mr Jones (as Committee Chair), Mr Nilsson and Mr Stern.
